Life In The City:

Review: “If I Ever Fall Asleep” blends funk-pop-rock that highlights a catchy melody and a groove that is unmistakably Turkuaz. The lyrics are creative, and the vocal harmonies and lead vocals are definitively strong. The guitar work of Brodhead is brilliant, with a warm distorted tone his leads have direction and energy.” (Griff Stevens sept 29 2018)

Backatown:

Review: “Backatown is both deeply rooted and culturally omnivorous, opening with his 'bone hard-rocking a hip-hop groove, soon joined by a brass section, rock guitar and some boozy-sounding dudes hollering shit. Shorty can also sing smooth funk, and he dubs up nasty space fusion à la 1970s Miles Davis. (Will Hermes) may 10 2010

Band as a Whole:

Balancing male-female harmonies, strutting guitars, wild horn arrangements, and interminable grooves, a spirit takes shape on stage nightly for Turkuaz via larger-than-life performances. ## Caramoor Music Festival announces cancellation of 2020 event

The Caramoor Music Festival announced the 2020 event's cancellation Monday. Organizers of the 3-day event cited conditions surrounding COVID-19 and current mandates from the state government as reasons for the cancellation.

"The safety and health of our guests, artists, partners, and staff are always our first priority," Bill Donabedian, co-founder of the festival, said in a press release.

The announcement comes after many other fairs and festivals across the state have made similar announcements. Others still are looking to keep their events alive in some way or another.

Juno Nominated

“Fans adore singular songwriters for their authenticity, and it can make a real difference in the connection they feel to the act,” says Juno. “Collaboration is good; Adele is a great example of a true artist who collaborates with other writers but keeps her own ‘voice.’
